Summer Flying by:

It's been a busy summer and we still have many activities to come. Our July Open House and Barn Sale went well, but we still have a pump organ and other items left so we'll do the sale again at the August Open House, August 31st from 2-5. All offers will be considered.

We were open on Friday afternoon for Twins Days. We did get three sets of Twins to tour the museum and barn. We'll try again next year and get the word out earlier. Thanks to all who helped host.

Thanks:

We want to take a minute to thank Dean and Diane Wilhelm. They were kind enough to host the Trustees at their barn for our August meeting. We turned it into cookout/pot luck. We had a great time and enjoyed the beautiful grounds. The barn is perfect for entertaining large groups and has all the benefits of home. Thank you for the warm welcome.

Food Cupboard:

We will have food donation boxes in the barn and in the museum. Please help us fill the boxes with non perishable food for our local Food Cupboard. It's back to school time and that means the Food Cupboard needs all the help it can get.

We have a Computer:

Last but not least, thank you Bob Davet for the computer, Will Adams for the monitor, and Mary Kay Johnston for the printer. These will help keeping the records for the museum. We still have a long way to go to get to this century but we're on our way.

The Olde Thyme Fayre:

Are you ready for The Olde Thyme Fayre? We are. September 6th, 10 to 5 and September 7th, 1 to 5. Bring in your crafts, hand made items, vegetables, flowers, canned goods for a chance at a BLUE RIBBION. If you're not sure whether we'll take your item bring it anyway. Mary Williams and her group will be in the museum to take your items on Friday afternoon from 4- 7. Sorry, no entries on Saturday. Judging will take place Saturday morning. Items from the garden or kitchen can be dropped off at the barn Friday afternoon between 6-7:30 and Saturday 8:30-9:30am. The judging for the items in the barn will take place before the Fayre open at 10:00. Come out and enjoy and old fashioned fun day. We'll have demonstrations in the museum and in the barn. Martha will have her bakery on Saturday, come early! The kids can ride our rocking horse or shell some corn, make crafts to take home and ask lots of questions. If you get hungry we'll have hot dogs and sodas ready to sell you. Donation containers are waiting to be filled. Don't forget to get your chance to win the beautiful quilt hanging in the museum, $5.00 a chance. And craft items from the Tuesday Morning crafters. We will have something for everyone in the family.

Here is a set of twins that stopped by the Historical Society during Twins Days. They were from Texas.

The Historical Society joins the 21st Century! (sort of):

It was brought to our attention that some of you would like to receive your Newsletter via email. I have set up the email delivery for those that have contacted me and told me that they want it delivered that way. As far as I know everyone that requested it has been put into the system. We know that not everyone will or desire to have it delivered that way. We just don't want to only have a very small group want it delivered by email. As of this date we have a very small group, 6 people, that would like their newsletter delivered by email. If we do not get a bigger group then we will have to reconsider providing this service. So, if you would like your newsletter delivered by email, you need to go to the web site, www.twinsburghistoricalsociety.org, and then go to the "Officers" page and click on the email link for the "Newsletter", (that's me). Send me an email with your name and email address in it and I will put you on the list for email delivery. This started with the June edition of the newsletter and if the numbers do not get considerably bigger we might have to reconsider delivery of the newsletter in this fashion. Thanks, Bob

Tales of Locust Grove:

Our annual Tales of Locust Grove will be in September this year and will dovetail with the September Open House. The dates are Friday, September 26 and Saturday September 27. We have also added a dress rehearsal for the folks at Legacy Village on Thursday, September 25.

It is very gratifying to see how this project has grown over the years. Every year we have new actors and every year we have new visitors. The local merchants are very generous and it is wonderful to hear folks comment. We often have people come from towns around and folks who have never visited the museum before. Last year we added a teacher in the museum and Ray Diersing was perfect for the part. Mark Hersch, father of our "Into the Past", coordinator, Lyndsi Hersch, was in the Barn playing Dr. Freeman. There is now a sign saying Freeman barn over the door to remind us of the time before it was Mail Pouch. We are recruiting younger actors with the help of Eric Mulcahy who joined us as a guide last year.

We could still use your help. If you have any shepherd hooks from your garden or lanterns we could borrow that would be much appreciated you can email Marti Franks at mfranks@aol.com or leave a message at the Museum (330) 487-5565. You can also leave a message on Facebook. Check the website for more information and pictures of Locust Grove. Everyone has a good time and we all learn more about the folks who came before us. Tickets must be purchased at the barn, and groups will be guided around the tours.

While it is wonderful to have more visitors it is even more wonderful when they join. Membership forms will be available, right next to the donation jar. If you are getting this newsletter you are either a current member or have joined in the past. If you have not renewed for this year, it is never too late. If you have let your membership lapse we would love to have you back. We also offer lifetime memberships which are a true bargain especially for the younger families. Check out our beautiful new website, www.twinsburghistoricalsociety.org, for all of the up to date info you need. Go to the Twinsburg Historical Society Facebook page and join us there. Remember liking us on Facebook does not make you a member but it does keep you updated.
