It is hard to imagine a lovelier autumn in the midst of the Pandemic Year. While we are living this challenging time, painters and poets are capturing this for generations to come. The team of the "Tales of Locust Grove" are working hard on capturing our beloved tour on video. Turns out this is a very challenging project. We are a band of about twenty and we have already taped about half of the characters. We are getting a graduate education on sound and color and looking at our stories in a different way. We hope to have something for you to see soon. In the meantime, keep checking the website and the Facebook page for all the latest news.

We will have a few of our beloved characters from Locust Grove at the Open House on October 25 from 2:00 to 5:00. Please stop in. Our exhibits are constantly being tweaked and reorganized so there is always something new.

It is not too early to shop for the Holidays. We can take credit cards too. Your cash or checks are always good. We have copies of the History of Twinsburg aka the Green Book, or the Nosy Book as some folks thought it might have a little bit too much information. We have a great collection, mark your calendar now and plan to make this the weekend. The grounds are ablaze too. Bring your camera or smart phone or even your sketch pad. We would love to see your pictures.

Like all museums we are struggling with funding our programs and buildings. If you have some spare change you can drop it in our donation jar.

The quilt raffle is on until December and there are a few raffle tickets left for the Wonderful Doll House. Great ways to get treasures and support your Historical Society.

Don't forget this Fund Raiser!! Great Christmas Gift for someone!!

Back in April of this year we announced a unique & special raffle to benefit preserving Twinsburg's Italianate designed Roach House. The raffle is for a two story, 6 room dollhouse. At only $5.00 per ticket with only 200 tickets being sold, the "odds will forever be in your favor". With covid-19 restricting everyone's movement, ticket sales have been a little slow. So far we have sold almost half the tickets and hope for renewed interest during upcoming holiday season. Interested?

Send a self addressed stamped envelope along with your check with your name, address & telephone number plus the number of tickets desired to Dollhouse Raffle c/o Twinsburg Historical Society, 8996 Darrow Road, Twinsburg, Ohio 44087-2127. We will immediately send out your ticket stubs.

Happy
Thanksgiving

We just received a notice from AmazonSmile that they sent us another donation of $73.39. The year to date AmazonSmile donation to the Twinsburg Historical Society is now $281.84. Thank you for your support.

The Twinsburg Historical Society wishes to thank all those renewing & new members who took part in our special two year membership offering. In addition to believing in our mission of making Twinsburg history accessible to the community you have helped ensure that we will be here for future generations to come. Thank you again.

Unfortunately due to the current covid-19 situation we will not be able to present our 12th. Annual presentation of the Tales of Locust Grove as a walking tour. Instead this year's Tales will be virtual. Please check our web site at www.twinsburghistoricalsociety.org for a great trip down memory lane when the videos have been posted.

It is hoped that next year we will be able to present our 13th. Tour as a memorable face to face meeting with Twinsburg's past. At that time we will honor our commitment to you and send you two free tickets for our much acclaimed cemetery walk.

Charitable Giving

The Historical Society relies upon the generous financial support of private individuals & of our local businesses to help us preserve and care for Twinsburg's historical legacy. We hope that you will help your Twinsburg Historical Society continue its important work by considering us in your will, trust or by beneficiary designation.

History is preserved not through government institutions but through the actions of selfless individuals who became aware of a momentous event or were touched personally, then inspired to do what they could do to save it. As a society we grow learning from our past and we hope you will join us in preserving this knowledge for the future.

Bequests in your will, trust or by beneficiary designation cost you nothing now. You can hold on to your assets for as long as you need them & you can change your beneficiaries at any time.

Leaving a financial gift in your will to charity is not done on a whim. It is a deeply personal decision that reflects your values and beliefs. It is an easy thing to do. Just contact your lawyer or financial advisor & tell them that you appreciate the Twinsburg Historical Society & want to support it for future generations with a gift by bequest in your will.
